Geographic Scope of Application

This SMA Limited Factory Warranty applies worldwide. Warranty coverage may vary in certain countries within the geographic scope of application (see below).

Warranty Coverage

The SMA Limited Factory Warranty covers the costs incurred for repairs and/or replacement parts during the defined warranty period as part of and in accordance with the conditions stipulated herein from the date the warranty period begins. If a device becomes defective during the defined warranty period, the device will be (at the discretion of SMA)

- replaced with a device of equivalent value with regard to product type and age, or
- repaired on-site by SMA or a service partner appointed by SMA
(when SMA reasonably concludes that the geographical area in which the system is operated is deemed too risky to render on-site services, SMA's obligations to render these services for said area are suspended for the period in which such risk is reasonably deemed to exist), or
- repaired at SMA's premises by SMA or a service partner appointed by SMA, or
- for products with SMA Limited Factory Warranties greater than 5 years, the appropriate market value of the defective device (which is determined by SMA based on the market value that the device would have if it were not defective) will be reimbursed

The warranty claimant must accept a replacement device of equivalent value with regard to product type and age if it has cosmetic defects that do not affect energy production, or safety compliance. SMA will, at its option, use new and/or equal to new condition parts of original or improved design in the repair or replacement of the warranty claimant's device.

Specific Information if SMA chooses to Supply a Replacement Device

If the device is to be replaced, SMA at its discretion will either send in advance a replacement device (or send a replacement device after prepayment of the value of the replacement device and the costs of delivery), or send a replacement device after receipt of the defective device. As required by SMA, the warranty claimant must return the defective device at their own risk in packaging that is suitable for its transportation to an address defined by SMA that will be located within the same country that the replacement device is shipped from. The costs for removal and replacement of the device, as well as the transportation costs for sending the replacement device and returning the defective device (including, but not limited to, export certifications, inspections, and customs duties) are to be borne entirely by the warranty claimant. If the device is installed in an SMA Primary Support Country, (see table below) the SMA Limited Factory Warranty will also cover transportation costs, export certifications, inspections, and customs duties for replacement and returned devices.

SMA will retain ownership of the replacement device that has been delivered until it receives the defective device.

The value of the replacement device will be refunded once the defect device is returned and accepted by SMA.

If the defective device is returned after a 30 day period SMA has the right to charge the warranty claimant for the cost of administering the overdue RMA (Return Material Authorization) account. Return items will not be accepted without a valid RMA number obtained from SMA that is clearly displayed on the returned items packaging.

Specific Information if SMA chooses to Repair a Device On-site

If the device is to be repaired on-site, by SMA or a service partner appointed by SMA, the SMA Limited Factory Warranty covers the repair material and repair labor costs for removal and replacement of the part or replacement device provided that the device is installed at ground level or a safely accessible level roof top. No other costs – including, but not limited to, transportation, export certifications, inspections, customs duties, costs to safely access devices installed on slanted rooftops, or for lift equipment, travel or accommodation costs, the costs of the warranty claimant’s own employees, or the costs of third-parties that have not been authorized by SMA – are covered by the SMA Limited Factory Warranty. If the device is installed in an SMA Primary Support Country (see table below), the SMA Limited Factory Warranty will also cover transportation costs, export certifications, inspections, customs duties, for replacement and returned parts or devices.

Specific Information if SMA chooses to Repair a Device at SMA’s Premises

If the device is to be repaired at SMA’s premises, the warranty claimant must remove the defective device and send it for repair to SMA in Kassel, Germany at their own risk in packaging that is suitable for its transportation. Once the device has been repaired at SMA’s premises, SMA will return the repaired device to the warranty claimant. The costs for removal and replacement of the device, as well as the costs for sending the device to SMA’s facilities in Kassel, Germany and returning it to the warranty claimant including, but not limited to, transportation costs, export certifications, inspections, and customs duties are to be borne entirely by the warranty claimant. If the device is installed in an SMA Primary Support Country, (see table below), the SMA Limited Factory Warranty will also cover transportation costs, export certifications, inspections, and customs duties for the returned and repaired device.

Specific Information on the Coverage of Other Costs

SMA will inform the warranty claimant of any costs that are not covered by this SMA Factory Warranty (including, but not limited to, replacement device value, transportation, export certifications, inspections, customs duties, travel, or accommodation) that require payment to SMA in advance of the repair action. The repair will be performed depending on the warranty claimant’s consent to cover these costs.
